ABOUT THE FILM | A STATE OF PASSION

A feature-length documentary by Carol Mansour and Muna Khalidi. After 43 horrific days working under constant bombardment in Gaza's Al Shifa and Al Ahli hospitals, British-Palestinian surgeon Dr. Ghassan Abu Sittah emerged as a face of Palestinian resistance. Shell-shocked, he spoke of lacerated bodies, amputations without anesthetics, orphaned children, and the deliberate targeting of medics and hospitals.

This was Ghassan's sixth and most horrific Gaza "war". Why does he return again and again? Where does he find the strength?

Filmmakers Carol Mansour and Muna Khalidi, close friends of the Abu Sittahs, began filming him the moment he emerged from Gaza, following him across cities as they explore their common State of Passion: Palestine.
